

The Jean Crawford Cochrane Scholarship Application Form 2022-23

The scholarship, to commemorate Jean Crawford Cochrane, is for the purpose of encouraging women to further their education through an undergraduate degree course at Queen's, an opportunity which may have been limited, due to financial constraints.

Preference will be given to women normally coming from the post-primary education system in Northern Ireland, on the basis of a student's verified household income (usually under £20,000), who have a place on the first year of a full-time undergraduate degree course at Queen's University Belfast.

For your application to be considered all relevant sections of the form must be completed. All information will be treated confidentially. (See Notes for Guidance attached)

Completed application forms must be supported by evidence of financial circumstances and should be emailed to Alumni Relations Officer at alumni@qub.ac.uk or delivered to Alumni Relations Officer, Development and Alumni Relations Office, Queen's University Belfast, Belfast BT7 1NN by 12:00 noon on Friday, 24 February 2023.

NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

The Jean Crawford Cochrane Scholarship is normally up to £1,500 per annum for three years' duration although it may vary from year to year. The application form is designed to enable you to provide information to support your application. Applicants will be selected on academic performance/achievement in Semester 1 modules, and payment will be made during April.

- Please complete the application form accurately, including telephone dialling codes and post codes where relevant.
- The information provided in the form should be complete and correct to ensure full consideration by the Selection Committee. If a section of the form does not apply to your application please insert N/A – no section should be left blank.
- Referees will not be contacted. The onus is on applicants to ensure that references arrive by the deadline.
- Please write legibly using black ink if submitting the form in hand-written format.

Both sections of this form, and two references in support of your application, should be returned to:

Alumni Relations Officer
Development and Alumni Relations Office
Queen's University Belfast
University Road
Belfast, BT7 1NN

Or Email to: alumni@qub.ac.uk

By 12:00 noon on Friday, 24 February 2023.

The above deadline will be strictly adhered to. No late applications will be accepted.

- The Jean Crawford Cochrane Scholarship Selection Committee especially welcomes applications from women normally coming from the post-primary education system in Northern Ireland, on the basis of a student's verified household income who have been offered a place on the first year of a full-time undergraduate degree course at Queen's University Belfast.
- Short-listed candidates may be invited for interview.

N.B. The information contained in this form will be held in accordance with the University's Data Protection Policy:
